COMMUNITY NOTICES

Refreshments

Refreshments after the 10.30 am Sunday service will be served in the Undercroft Learning Centre (entrance through the cloisters) during the Christmas Tree Festival. These will, as usual, be provided by the Friends of Worcester Cathedral. All are very welcome.

Christmas Cards

The Congregational Christmas Cards postal service has been operating as usual this year. This weekend cards can be collected (only) at the refreshments following the 10.30 am Sunday service.

Library Thank You

From the Librarian: Thank you very much indeed to everyone who donated books or helped in some way with the library bookstall for the Victorian Fayre. Your support was really appreciated and made it worthwhile.

Charity Nominations

Each year the Cathedral donates a portion of its income from congregational giving to external charities. The Congregational Committee would welcome suggestions for charities we might support this way in 2025. We are especially seeking charities (or causes) that (1) might have the potential for further practical involvement beyond financial giving; (2) advance the cathedral's vision to catalyse campaigning and awareness on the environment and social justice; (3) already have a personal connection to one or more members of the cathedral community; (4) address a particularly timely or topical concern; and/or (5) where our support might be able to make a significant difference. Please send nominations, together with links to the charity's website (if applicable) and a brief indication how it might meet some of the above criteria, to robertbeattie@worcestercathedral.org.uk by Epiphany (6 January).
